

Local Matters.

Wednesday Morning, Jan. 24, 1860.
Death-Law.—There is no uncal'd party in the Cincinnati portfolio for Messrs. H. L.
King & Co., of this city.

New Castle.—An undesirable new crossing has been made at the intersection of Main and Adams streets.

Mr. Baileys Statement.—This eminent actor is in the city, and our theatre-goers will be gratified to learn that he will commence an engagement at the new theater on Monday next.

Brownings' Cancer.—Major East had an attack, day by day, in his throat, last week, and disposed of sixteen cases. Each to the amount of $100 was received, and eight additional were made in the chipping.

Hon. R. Rice, Esq.—This gentleman, having been absent at Nashville, for several days, has now returned. He is well, and found at his office all time's lost during his absence.

The Last Entertainment.—There was a fine entertainment last evening, at the Cathedral, given by the friends of Old Folks Home, on Sunday evening, December 20th. A large number of persons were present, and seemed greatly delighted with the exercises, which were of a moral and interesting character. Mr. C. will give his last entertainment at the city at Old Fellow's Hall this evening.

We take pleasure in asking public attention to the law card of our friend H. L.
Folk, Esq. Mr. Folk may be safely relied upon as a reliable attorney, and will give prompt attention to all business entrusted to his care.

ACCIDENTAL FATE.—A gentleman from Louisville, Mr. Sloan, fell down the steps at the tunnel entrance, on Adams street, Monday night, and was severely injured. He was removed to the Western Hotel, where his wounds were dressed.

CONTINUED.—The two men Penherton and Safar, who are accused of shooting guns and other articles on board the steamer E. M.
Island, were brought from prison yesterday and placed in the custody of the sheriff, who had been retained for driving in the gunns and other articles.

THE TRIAL.—There was another good affair at the theater last evening, and there will doubtless be a repetition of the compelliment to Mr. Collins this evening. The attractions embrace "The Irish Genius" and "The Irish Lad," concluded with a "Caged Lion."

A DARING ATTEMPT TO COMMIT A ROBBERY.— A robbery attempt was made to commit a robbery at the home of Dr. John L. Jones, on Third street, near the Catholic church, about 1 o'clock yesterday morning. To witness were detected in the act of robbing an eighteen-year-old boy, who was riding his motorcycle, when he was suddenly struck by a bullet, which passed through his motorcycle, and the boy fell to the ground.
